This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

THE vote to print the present volume of records was passed in March, 1896, before the completion of the Book of Tax Lists. The work has progressed slowly, and has passed through the hands of three different firms, the name of the last appearing upon the title page. The volume is just twice the size originally contemplated, which will serve in part to explain the delay in printing.

In addition to the Town Records, private records of Births, Deaths, and Marriages have been printed. These include the list of deaths, about five hundred in number, kept by the Rev. Samuel Woodward from 1751 to 1782, and continued by a later hand to 1786; one kept by Mrs. Rebecca Baldwin, 1762–1788; one kept by Mrs. Miranda Kendal, 1814–1833; and also the names and dates upon the gravestones which were erected in the four cemeteries previous to November, 1900. Some discrepancies in these lists show that the date of death and burial were sometimes confounded. Very few of these deaths are recorded upon the town books.

Dr. Kendal, in his Century Sermon, Jan. 12, 1813, says that he has no correct source from which to ascertain the number of deaths during the first century of the town's existence, but that during his own ministry of about thirty years, beginning in 1783, there had been four hundred and sixteen. By actual count, the town records contain but nine of these. He must, therefore, have obtained the list from a manuscript of his own. It becomes interesting to inquire what became of this record. It seems to have disappeared with the first volume of the town records (1695–1754), the last notice of which dates from Dr. Kendal's Century Sermon, preached a short time before his death. The town will be glad to hear from either or both of these records. Some of the names on Dr. Kendal's list have been recovered from private sources, gravestones, etc., but of many of them there is now no record.

The dates, pages 228–233, have been supplied from Family Registers. The marriages from 1815 to 1839 were probably all returned at the last date, in most cases the year only being reported.

In tracing genealogies, a great deal of trouble arises from the repetition of the same name through two or more generations. On pages 578–9, four generations of Uphams (three of them Thomas) had wives named Ruth. The titles Mrs. and Miss were carelessly used. The last has in several cases been applied to a widow, and at least in one case is so placed upon a gravestone. The first was often given by way of respect, but it is sometimes confusing. The title Junior was often omitted, rendering it difficult to determine whether father or son was intended. The Town of Western, now called Warren, was sometimes mistaken for Weston, and returns meant for that town were sent here.

In addition to the data found in this book, birthdays and ages are found in the book of Tax Lists, pages 45–49, and lists of school-children, with ages, in the Records of the Town Clerk, 1804–1826, pages 400–417. The Tax Lists themselves (since few escaped taxation) are of great value.

The baptisms and other records from the Church books have been included, since these form a valuable supplement to those of the town, the record of baptism often being the only mention of a person. The Rev. William Williams kept a very complete record of persons connected with the church while he had charge of the church books, from 1709 to 1751. From 1709 to 1825 the town had oversight of the church in everything but spiritual matters, voting the minister's salary, providing gravestones at his decease, and making arrangements for the ordination of his successor. The church records during this time and a few later entries from note-books of the Rev. Dr. Field have been printed in full with the exception of certain cases of public acknowledgment and the details of two cases of church discipline. As these seemed to serve no good purpose at the present day, they have been omitted. Similar records may be found in the church histories of the period. There is a complete copy of these records in manuscript.

Those who "owned the Covenant" or acknowledged their intellectual belief in the doctrines of the church, without personal Christian experience, having been themselves baptized, usually in infancy, were allowed baptism for their children, but were not themselves admitted to the Lord's Supper. This practice continued through the early part of the ninteenth century. This, sometimes called the Half-way Covenant, is on page 527 called the covenant assented to by the young people. On page 540, which is probably the one printed at the end of Mr. Williams's book alluded to on page 530, it is called the Covenant for Non-Communicants. This last and the Covt. for Communicants, page 539, were not recorded in the church books, but were written on the inside of the cover of a bible belonging to the Rev. Samuel Woodward, and probably used by him throughout his entire ministry. They were printed in the book recently published by the First Church from advanced sheets of the present work. The original covenant entered into in 1709 is identical with that signed by the minister in Newton, in behalf of the church at that place after their records were destroyed by fire in 1770. It is probably to be found in the records of other churches, where these have not been destroyed.

The change of Style made by Act of Parliament in 1752 is recorded on page 80. This change made the year begin legally, as it long had practically, with January 1, instead of March 25, December, as its name implies, having been previously reckoned the tenth month and January and February the eleventh and twelfth of the same year. The custom had arisen of giving a double date to the year in connection with the present first three months, a source of much confusion in later times. With the change of the beginning of the year, a further change was made by dropping eleven days from the calendar. An illustration of the manner in which these changes worked may be seen under the name of Nathan Hagar, page 568, where the family bible gives a different date from the town record, both being explainable.

There is sometimes a discrepancy between church and town dates. In such cases the church date is probably the correct one, the town date often being entered years after the event occurred. By comparing their ages given at baptism, the ages of the children of James and Abigail Jones, on pages 73–74, recorded twenty-one years after the birth of the oldest one, are all found to be one year too great, while the youngest, Solomon, said to have been born Feb. 8, 1741, is made two years too old by the omission of the double date. The church record says he was baptized Feb. 20, 1742-3, "born ye 8 or 9." These births were all entered at one time, the mistake of the first having been carried through all. Such mistakes are more readily perceived and corrected when the records are printed in the order of their entry, instead of attempting to make a new chronological order for the sake of economy. The object in all cases should be not to save money, but to save the record.

The book has been printed as written, excepting where the printer lacked the requisite form, and has been indexed for Subjects, names of Persons, and names of Places. Besides errata, mea culpa, it contains a list of errors made in the Original Records, including those found on gravestones and among the Baptisms, omitting those corrected in the body of the work. All errors have been stated as far as discovered.

her Child Recorded, when the Sd Child was Several years old (I being then town Clark) I then Calcalated the age of the sd Child back to find the year of her bierth, and accordingly Entered the same: Several years after the S-d mother Came to me again and brought another Woman with her, who both asserted that there was a mistake in the Record of the bierth of the s-d Child of Just one year, and Produced a Certifficate of her own marriage (of which I took a Copy they both asserted that the S-d Patience was one year yonger than the Record made her to be; therefore I being the man that Entered the same at first; and they both affirming that there was a mistake as above s-d; and I being then in the Same office of town Clark; thinking that if the Same was not Entered Right at first, and if I had missed in the Calcalating as above mentioned, I ought to set it Right then; which was the true Cause of the altering of S-d Record; which is Just one year from what it was at the first Entering as asserts

[Note.—By comparing the Return of Marriages from Rev^{d}. Joseph Field, pages 228 to 234, with Dr. Field's original manuscript several omissions have been discovered. The Returns here given are on file, and were evidently all returned at one time, to and including Nov. 12, 1839. This is probably about the date when they were sent in, presumably at the call of the Town Clerk, Dr. Benjamin James. Previous to 1833 the year only was recorded. As far as possible, the missing dates have been supplied in brackets. The following are the omissions:

1819. Asa Bucknam and Maria Boyd of Weston.

1823. Lewis Jones & Betsey Train of Weston.

1826. Henry Robbins & Clarissa Rand of Weston.

On the fly-leaf of the manuscript without date is the following:

Ira B. Whittemore of & Betsey Adams of Pepperell married in the year—

On p. 233, a wrong return was made. The name in manuscript was Joshua W. Lawrence, which is the correct one, not Josiah.]

[The following list of deaths was copied by Dr. Joseph Field probably about the time of his preparing his fiftieth anniversary sermon, which was given in 1865. The book in which they are written bears every evidence of not being an original. They were probably taken from a record kept by Mrs. Miranda Kendal, the separated leaves of which were some time ago placed at the disposal of the editor by Mrs. E. B. M. Knox, her grandaughter. Dr. Field's record closes just before the death of Mrs. Kendal, in 1833. Mrs. Kendal's record was continued for a short time by her sister, Miss Sally Woodward.

Mrs. Kendal's record has been followed here with the exception of that for the years 1814, 1815, and 1816, the leaves of which were missing. These years have been taken from Dr. Field's copy. For the sake of indexing, some vacancies have been supplied by the editor.

If some one could furnish a private record for the years 1833 to 1844 inclusive, it would be of great help in completing our list of deaths, which until the latter date is quite defective.—Ed.]

The notices of deaths, removals, &c., were added later and as they occurred. A few pages are devoted to out-of-town baptisms. The book bears the inscription, Guil: Williams, 1709.—Ed.]

I had an Invitation from the People to settle in This Place, in the Work of The Ministry of the Gospel Feb^ry. 4.. 170$\frac{7}{8}$. from w^h time, I continued To preach to Them, for The most part.

After my concluding to Settle with Them (which was Aug^t. 23^d. 1709, upon Their compliance with the condit^ns., in my Answ^r. to y^m.) Care was taken that There might be an Ordinat^n; And There having never been a Church gathered in This Place, but Several sons members of The Neighb^r.ing Churches; They Sought Their Dismission, for That Service here, viz.

Octr. 12th. 1709, was the Day appointed, and attended, by the before-named & These Persons to meet and conferr together (at my Lodging) where They Expressed Their Charity towards Each other, and that There was no discord between them, or any Thing that Should hinder Their Comunion and fellowship,—

Some Time was Spent in reading The Confession of Faith put forth by the past Synod of Churches held in Boston in N. E. (To which they assented,) and in Praying for the Divine Blessing— — — The Covenant (wh was Afterwrd publ. read) was read, and Subscribed by Them All—.

The Covenant wh Sundry of the Inhab. &c.

We do under an abasing Sense of our unworthiness of such a favour and unfitness for such a Business, yet apprehending ourselves to be called of God to put ourselves into a way of Church Comunion, and to Seek the Settlement of all the Gospel Institutions among us, doe therefore in order thereto, and for ye better promoting thereof as much as in us lies, knowing how prone we are to err, abjuring all Confidence in ourselves, and relying on the Lord Jesus Ct. for help, Covenant as follows,

First, Having perused, the Confessions of Faith put forth by the last Synod of Churches, held in Boston in New-England, we do heartily close in with it for the Substance of it, and promise to stand by, maintain, and if need be contend for ye Faith therein delivered to ye People of God; and if any one of us shall go about to undermine it we will bear a due Testimony agt. them.

We do also combine to walk together as a particular Church of Christ, according to all those Holy rules of ye Gospel prescribed to Such a Society, so far as God has revealed, or shall reveal his mind to us in this Respect.

We do according recognize the Covenant of Grace, in which we do professedly acknowledge ourselves devoted to ye fear and Service of the only true God our Supream Lord, and to ye Lord Jesus Christ the High-Priest, Prophet & King of his Church, unto the conduct of whose Spirit, we Submit ourselves, and on whom alone we rely for pardon Grace and Glory; To whom we bind ourselves in an Everlasting Covenant never to be broken.

We likewise give up ourselves one unto another in the Lord, resolving by his help to cleave to each other, as fellow members of one Body in brotherly Love and holy Watchfulness over one another, for mutual Edification, and to Submit ourselves to all the Holy administrations appointed by him who is the head of his Church, dispensed according to the Rules of the Gospel, and to give our constant attendance on all the publick ordinances of Christ's Institution, walking orderly as becometh Saints.

We do also acknowledge our Posterity to be included with us in the Gosple Covenant, and blessing God for so rich a favour, do promise to bring them up in the nurture and admonition of y^e^ Lord, w^th^ greatest care.

Further we promise to be carefull to y^e^ uttermost, to procure the Settlement and continuance among us of all y^e^ offices and officers appointed by Christ, the chief Shepherd, for the edification of his church. And accordingly to do our duty faithfully for their maintenance and encouragement, and to carry it towards them as becomes us.

Finally, we do acknowledge, and promise to preserve communion with the faithfull Churches of Christ, for the giving and receiving mutuall Counsell and assistance, in all cases wherein it shall be needfull.

Now the Good Lord be mercifull unto us, and as he hath put it into our hearts thus to devote ourselves to him, Let him pity and pardon our frailties, humble us out of all carnall confidence, and keep it forevermore upon our hearts to be faithfull to himself, and one to another, for his Praise, and our Eternall Comfort, for Christ Jesus Sake, to whom be Glory for ever & ever, Amen.

[I. p. 30] Votes

1.—That nothing sd. or done by Mr. Williams, alledg'd by our Neighbr—Jonathan Biggelow, is any just ground or Cause of offence at all, So far as appears to us—

That turning ye back towards ye Minister to gaze abroad, and laying down ye head upon ye Arms (in a sleeping posture) in ye Time of publick worship (Extraordinary cases excepted) are gestures irreverent & indecent, and which ought to be reform'd where they are faulty therein, & carefully avoided.

[I. p. 51] Weston June 29, 1741.—At a Meeting of ye Brethren of the Church, appointed for that Purpose,—

Discourse was had about ye manner of Admission of Persons into Communion—

Voted, Whereas Some serious Persons may have Scruples in their minds about Making a Relation of their Experiences or Convictns. in order to their being receiv'd into Church-Fellowship as thinking they are not obliged thereto by ye Gospel,—That it shall not be Impos'd upon them as a necessary Term of Communion, But that if they are of orderly, good lives, and give Satisfaction to ye Minister of their Knowledge in the Christian Religion, and understandingly make that Profession of Faith, (publickly) which is printed at ye end of Mr. William's Book, (entitld. True Wisdom ye most excellt. Good, to be earnestly Sought) &c,—it shall be satisfactory to ye Church—.

[Note.—A somewhat extended search in the great libraries has failed to reveal a copy of this book, and the Profession of Faith printed at the end. But as no mention of a change in the latter is mentioned during the ministry of the Rev. Saml. Woodward, 1751 – 1782, it is very likely that the Prof. of F. adopted in 1741 was the same as that written on the inside cover of a Bible used by Rev. Mr. Woodward, and in his handwriting. This Profession will be printed later. See p. 539.—Ed.]

Also Discourse was had about a further supply of vessels for the Communion-

Table (ye Church increasing—)—They were put in mind of a vote, pass'd at a Chh Meetg. Novr. 6. 1724. the Result and not the whole in ye Chh. Book & in adding the attestation of the Scribe of the late Councill to sd. imperfect Record be satisfactory to the Chh. It passed in the Affirmative.

[II. 41] At a Chh. Meeting May 30. 1755 appointed the preceding Sabbath upon account of the uneasiness in the Chh. by reason of the Conduct of Brother Abraham Gale— * * * After considerable Debate & some Evidences were produced Brother Abraham Gale offered an acknowledgement to ye Chh in writing which the Chh accepted as Christian Satisfaction by their Vote on sd. 30 Day of May—

At the same Time that or Brother Abram Gales Conduct was faulty & in some of the same Places the Conduct of Brother Henry Gale & of Abigail his wife was found to be Exceptionable & offensive. But they readily promising to give Christian & publick Satisfaction to the Chh for their Misconduct, there was not need of a Chh Meeting on their Account, accordingly Brother Henry Gale offered an Acknowledgement to the Chh Jun. 6. 1755 and his wife some-Time after both which Acknowledgements were accepted as Christian Satisfaction from each of the Persons.

[II. 42] March 25, 1756. After humble prayer to God for Direction Discourse was had relating to ye Conduct of the Persons before mentioned. * * * Brother Henry Gale gave the Chh satisfaction. The Church Meeting being adjourned from March 25 one fortnight accordingly met upon adjournment April 8. [Marginal Note]. Abigail Gale was restored to the charity of ye Chh by Vote April 29, 1781.

[Abridged from pp. 41, 42, 43, and 44.—Ed.]

[II. 44.] At the above sd Chh Meeting, April 15th. [1756] the Pastor informed ye Chh. that Sister Chubb who for certain Reasons within herself had absented from or Communion some Time, proposed again to come provided there be no objections agt. it: upon ys it was voted——That Sister Chubb be desired to stay away fro our Communion till * * * she give this Chh Satisfaction * * *.

Sept. 5. 1756 The abovesd. Frances Chubb made her Peace with this Chh and was restored by a Vote to Charity and Privileges. S. W. Pastor.

At a Chh. Meeting Oct. 6. 1757 appointed ye preceding Sabbath To Consider and act upon the Case of several Psons viz - - Brother Andrew Stimson & Mary the wife of Braddyll Smith members in full Communion with this Chh. & Nathanael Stimson & Francis Jones who are in Covenant, Psons Supposed to walk unbecoming their Christian Profession—After prayer to God for Direction some Discourse was had Concerning Brother Stimson & hearing what the Brethren present could Testify of his misconduct— —voted.

[II. 45.] Vot= That Deac: Upham Brother Saml. Seaverns & Brother Abraham Biggelow be a Committee to go, in the Name of ye Chh to Brother Andrew Stimson relating to Rumours of his Misconduct endeavour to convince him of his Errors, inform him what the Chh expect from him & ripen the matter for a further hearing, and inform him he is debarred from Special Privileges with us till the Chh have recd. further Light & Satisfaction in the Matter— Afterward Discourse was had concerning Nathanael Stimson his Breach of Cov. & the Duty of this Chh to watch over him when it was voted that ye above Named Committee shd. in the Name & Behalf of the Chh discourse with him: endeavouring to bring him to a Sense of his Duty & Disposition to acknowledge his Fault. How ever to ripen the Matter for a further hearing before the Chh. & for their acting upon it. After this the Case of or Sister Mary wife of Braddyll Smith was called and Evidence produced to the Satisfaction of the Chh. that she had often disguised herself with Strong Drink.

Wherefore it was voted—— Vot. That whereas it is Testifyed to the Satisfaction of this Chh that or Sister Mary the wife of Braddyll Smith has often been Disguised with Strong Liquor by Drinking it to excess, and after much pains have been taken with her for her Reformation by the Pastor & others of this Chh, tho' a Reformation has not been effected —Voted, That sd. Mary be debarred from Special Privileges with us till She gives this Chh Christian Satisfaction for her offences & Testimony of a Reformation in her—

Then the Minds of the Chh were asked by the Pastor concerning the Misconduct of Francis Jones at the house of Samll. Baldwin a Considerable Time before & when in particular he treated Deacon Upham ill with his Tongue & was notoriously bad in his Language & Conduct wn the house was very full of People it being the Night the Watertown Farm was sold. The Question was put with this Proviso that he make Christian Satisfaction to Deacon Upham & others that were immediately offended with his Conduct) 1 whether it were the minds of the Chh that sd. Francis ought to make an acknowledgement for his Conduct on the abovesd. Evening before the whole Congregation. 2 whether he ought to do it before the Chh & both Questions were resolved in the Negative.——

[II. 46.] The other Business of Sd. Chh Meeting, (Oct: 6 1757) as was mentioned at the Appointment of it, was to consider a Petition brought in to the Pastor relating to the Record in or Chh — Book concerning Anna Cutler of Lincoln viz to Consider whether it is the Duty of this Chh to take any further Notice of sd. Record. After much Discourse the Petitioners Desired to withdraw their Petition & that their might be no Record of any thing done by the Chh upon it, which Request of ye Petitioners the Chh granted by their vote. [See Book I. 30–32, p. 530.]

After this we had some discourse concerning or Brother Gale and his Family. & It was thot that all things Considered it was not the Duty of the Chh, as yet, to send him a formal admonition. But some private Brothers were desired by the Chh to use their Interest with him to reclaim him.

The meeting was then adjourned Sine Die.

The Chh met upon the before mentioned adjournment Feb. 23, 1758. when the Cases of Nathanael & Andrew Stimson were again called, & the Committee chosen Oct. 6. 1757 made their Return: That Nathl. Stimson had offered no Satisfaction for his offences in disguising himself with strong Drink which he discovered once in the Face of ye Chh. and to particular Psons at sundry other Times, & indeed to the Committee when they went to him—therefore Voted That Nathanael Stimson be debarred from special Privileges in this Chh till he give Christian Satisfaction for his offences & Testimony of a Reformation.

Then Andrew Stimson offered an acknowledgment to the Chh for his Offences upon which ye Chh forgave & restored him to Charity & Privileges——

At a Chh Meeting March 22. 1759. appointed last Lords Day to consider and act upon a Charge delivered in to the Pastor agt. Aug. 1. 1762 Being Sabbath Day I appointed a Chh=Meeting to be immediately after Lecture ye next Thursday, The Design of which was to hear and act upon a Petition of Brother Henry Springs, the Prayer of which was, That whereas he had some of the Chh Interest in his Hands, and being at present greatly reduced, That the Chh wd. Isaac Hobbs, Joseph Russell & nine other brethren, requesting the Pastor to appoint a regular meeting of the church. "seriously to deliberate & decide upon the following question viz" "Whether any persons, who, previous to their making a profession of religion or owning the covenant may have been guilty of a fault but afterwards for length of time have maintained a sober regular life and conversation, shall be required to make a particular acknowledgment or confession to the church, before they shall be admitted to communion and other privileges."

after an address to the throne of grace for direction, the church proceeded to descuss the subject. After calmly deliberating upon the matter, upon motion, made and seconded, this question was put to vote, viz:

Whether the church will act upon the question that is now before them?

And it passed in the negative.

The meeting was then dissolved.

Sabbath evens Feby 16–1794.

The church being stayed agreed to have a meeting on the next Saturday at 2 o'clock P. M. to consult & act upon several articles of business then proposed: and voted that those not of this church but dwelling among & usually communing with us should be thereby invited to meet & act upon those matters.

[II. 109.] At a church meeting holden on the 22d day of Feby 1794, being duly warned & appointed the Sabbath preceeding, for the following purposes, viz.

1 To know the mind of the church, whether they will in any respect or cases alter the terms on which members are or may be admitted to fellowship, and to consider and act upon the matter at large as the church may think proper.

2 To know whether they will take any measures to revive and administer the dicipline of the church upon offending and irregular members.

3 To consider whether it be expedient to make any alteration in the covenant now used by this church, and act as they may judge proper upon it. [p. 539].

4 To know whether the church will introduce any new version of psalms, or do & act anything relative to public worship:

After considerable candid and christian conversation upon the several articles of business before the church, it was voted very unanimously to chuse a committee of five of the brethren to examine into the whole business, and report to the church at a future day what they think proper to be done upon each article. The following brethren were accordingly chosen to be the committee. for this purpose, viz.

Samuel Kendal, Pastor.
Deacn. Isaac Hobbs.
Elisha Stratton.
Joseph Russell.
Amos Bigelow.
} Comittee.

The church then voted to adjourn their meeting until Monday the 31st of March next at 2 o'clock P. M. and it was accordingly adjourned.

[II. 110.] Monday March 31st 1794. The church met according to adjournment, and their committee laid before them a proposed report: but it being a very rainy day and but few members present, it was thought best to adjourn until April 17th. that being Fast-day, immediately after public service in the afternoon: and the meeting was accordingly adjourned by unanimous vote.

April 17th. 1794 Met according to adjournment, & the committee made the following report viz.

"Brethren.

Your committee have seriously attended to the business assigned them at your meeting on the 22d of Feby last, & have unanimously agreed to make the following report viz."

"1st We are unanimously of the opinion, that where persons have been guilty of notorious violation of God's law, instead of a particular confession to the church, specifying their faults, as has been usual, heretofore, in some cases, a confession of sin in general terms in their relation, & profession of repentance and sorrow, shall be deemed satisfactory: and that such persons there upon, if they exhibit other satisfactory marks of sincerity and seriousness, may be admitted to church fellowship, and to all christian privileges."

"Your committee think it their duty, and the duty of this church to bear full testimony against all sin & impurity: and would not weaken in the minds of any, the sense of their faults by unscriptural extenuations. The fault for which particular confession has usually been made they think is of such a nature as to require deep humiliation & repentance.

2dly "We are of the opinion the church hath [II. 111.] been too lax in their discipline; and do earnestly recommend that they endeavour to revive and exercise the discipline of God's house upon offending members, and to watch over those under their care and over each other for good, more agreeably to the spirit of the gospel."

"3dly. That all things may be done without partiality, we recommend that the following clause be introduced into the covenant entered into by those who do not join in full communion but desire the privilege of baptism. viz."

"You do now publicly profess repentance & sorrow for all your sins, and for every fault in particular by which you have knowingly offended God or any sober christians: And that this clause be the third sentence in said covenant: and that it be accepted instead of a particular confession." [p. 540].

"4thly. Your committee are of the opinion that Doctr Watts' version of psalms and the hymns annexed thereto are better adapted to the purpose of public worship than the version now in use in this place: and do recommend that they be introduced and used in this church." [See p. 536.]

"Your committee take the liberty, in addition to their report on the several articles referred to their consideration, most seriously and earnestly to recommend a more strict observance of the Lord's day and attendance on public worship, as also greater attention and deligence among all heads of families in the government & instruction of those placed under their care, which we are fully persuaded would be happy & successful means to put a check to vice & impurity, to revive religion in the power of it, & to promote the practice of every virtue moral & social."

Samuel Kendal.
Isaac Hobbs.
Elisha Stratton. } Committee.
Joseph Russell.
Amos Bigelow.

[II. 112.] The church after having heard & considered the preceeding report of their committee, voted to accept it in whole. It was then moved and voted that the meeting be adjourned unto the 22 day of May next at 4 o clock P. M. then to agree when to introduce said version of psalms and hymns. & to consult what measures may be taken to revive and render the singing more agreeable aud acceptable, and to act any thing relative thereto the church may think proper: & the meeting was accordingly adjourned.

[March 29, 1761, they had voted to sing Tate & Brady's Version of Psalms.—Ed.]

May 22 1794. The church met according to adjournment, and, after some conversation upon the business, they voted to introduce Docr Watts' version of psalms & hymns in four weeks from the next sabbath. Some conversation was then had upon the subject of singing: but nothing was acted or voted relative to it. The business being finished, upon motion made the meeting was dissolved by vote.

Sabbath evening June 8th 1794, in consequence of the application and advice of some, who, upon further examination, were not fully willing that Docr Watts' version of psalms & hymns should be introduced here without further consideration the brethren of the church were requested to tarry; and, the matter being opened to them, it was motioned and voted, that the introducing of them should be suspended till something further shall be acted relative to their being introduced.

It was then moved & voted that said collection of psalms & hymns should be introduced the sabbath after next, being ye 14th of the present month.

The chh and society then proceeded, according to the request of brother Joseph Russell, made at the time of appointing the meeting, to consider and determine whether they would permit the continuance of the use of instruments of musick in publick worship on Lord's days. After patiently hearing what Brother Russell had to offer against it. the question was moved, seconded and put, viz, "Whether you will permit the continuance of such instruments of musick, as have been here introduced in public worship on the Lord's day?" It passed by a large majority both of the chh and others in the affirmative.

As neither of them appeared prepared to give immediate answer, signifying either acceptance or refusal of the trust, the church voted to adjourn their meeting eight weeks, that is, to our next lecture in course immediately after the public service, then to receive notice of their acceptance or refusal, and act accordingly. The meeting was accordingly adjourned to that time.

March 4, 1808. Being lecture day, the church met, according to adjournment, when brothers Nathan Warren and Thomas Biglow accepted the office of deacons, to which they had been chosen. The meeting was then dissolved.

[Note. There is no exact record of baptisms during Dr. Field's ministry; but there are three lists of births with dates, one of which is also marked Baptisms. The dates of baptism are not given previous to 1848. The lists were perhaps made out as late as that time and are of little value, although they furnish a few dates of births not found in the Town Records.

There is also a list of ordinations and installations attended from 1815 to 1864. The first is that of Rev. F. W. Greenwood, of the South Church, Boston, by pastor and delegates in 1818.—Ed.]

Profession of Faith.

[Note. After 1794, there is no mention of a Profession of Faith in the Church Books. But the following was given to the editor in June, 1856, by Dr. Field in response to a call for a copy of it. It is based on that used during the ministry of Rev. Dr. Woodward and presumably used during that of Rev. Dr. Kendal. See page 539 of this book.—Ed.]

Possessing a serious & hearty belief in the Scriptures you do now in an everlasting covenant give yourself to God in Jesus Christ.

You humbly and penitentially ask of God the pardon of all your sins—through Christ—and with all your heart you desire to accept of him your redeemer & savior as he is offered to you in the Gospel.

You also promise before God & in the presence of this assembly—that by the help of the holy Spirit—denying ungodliness—you will endeavor to live soberly, righteously and piously, in the present world—working out your own salvation with fear and trembling & forsaking the sinful vanities of this life and approving yourself a true disciple of Jesus Christ by all good conduct toward God and man.

You do also submit & subject yourself to the government of Christ and to the laws of his kingdom and discipline as regularly administered here. And particularly, you do promise so long as God shall continue you among us, to walk in regular communion with the church of Christ in this place.

Together with this people to attend on all the holy institutions & ordinances of his house and to conduct here according to the rules of the Gospel and in all things agreeable to what you know or shall know to be your duty.

Do You Thus Promise.

I then, in the name of Jesus Christ declare you to be a member in full communion with the church of Christ.

And in the name of the church I promise, that by the help of the same spirit we will conduct toward you as toward members of the same body with ourselves.

Watching over you for your Good with a spirit of meekness, love & tenderness earnestly praying that God may take delight in and dwell among us and that by us his kingdom may be advanced.

ADDENDA.

[The following account of the CENT SOCIETY in Weston was loaned by Mrs. E. B. M. Knox. Until about a year ago, it was in perfect condition; but a recent accident has rendered some parts of it undecipherable. Conjectural readings have been enclosed in brackets. Such societies were formed in various towns of New England in the early part of this century, but the editor has not been able to find the constitution of such, or an account of their proceedings beyond the briefest notices. For this reason, and especially because it contains the names of more than one hundred and twenty-five women who were residents of Weston in the years 1814–1818, it seemed desirable to put it in print.—Ed.]

To the Friends of Religion.

A single cent, where millions are [needed to carry out and per-]fect the benevolent designs of our fathers and brethren [who are now] sending the gospel and other religious advantages [to those parts] of our country, which are not favored with the stated administration of the holy word and ordinances and other means of religion, may appear at first view small and inconsiderable. But should the female friends of Jesus Christ and his religion adopt the plan of contributing only one cent a week and recommend the same practice to their friends and acquaintances, it is presumed a very handsome sum may be annually collected without inconvenience to individuals.

In conformity to the above plan, we, the subscribers, engage to appropriate one cent a week, for the purpose of aiding in the support of [missionaries and other] instructors and in purchasing Bibles and other [religious and useful] books to be sent among the poor and destitute in [our own] country, and to give the same to the Evangelical Missionary [Society in the] counties of Worcester and Middlesex, and annually, or [when it] may be convenient to be disposed of according to the pro-[———] and at the discretion of the Society.

After having subscribed the foregoing [the ladies] met August 5th, 1815, at the West [Centre School House] and chose Mrs. Yarnold moderator of the meeting. They then voted to adopt the following C[onstitution.

Constitution of a Parochial Female A[ssociation].

We, whose names are underwritten, animated by a desire of doing something toward the advancement of Christ's kingdom in our native land, and wishing, according to our ability, to aid the Evangelical Missionary Society in the counties of Worcester and Middlesex in their benevolent exertions to promote "evangelical truth and piety among poor and pious Christians, and in new and destitute towns," as set forth in the constitution of that society, do hereby form ourselves into an association for the purpose aforesaid, by the name of the Charitable Female Society in Weston, upon the principles following, viz.;

1. [Every lady who] shall subscribe this constitution, and an-[nually shall pay] fifty-two cents in money, shall be a [member of this] Society and have a right to one vote on all questions [before the Society] and for every additional dollar, thus paid, shall be entitled to an additional vote.

2. Every person shall be at liberty to dissolve her connexion with this society at the end of each year, by giving written notice to the Treasurer, that it is her desire that her connexion with the Society may cease. Removal from the Town or Parish in which the Society is formed, shall also operate dissolution of membership if requested.

3. This Society shall meet once in every year, on such day, and at such place as the Society shall appoint, for the choice of officers, and for the transaction of other business. The presence of one-third of the members shall be necessary [for altering the Constitution,] but seven members may constitute a [quorum for choosing officers.]

4. The stated officers of this Society shall be three [Directresses] a Clerk and a Treasurer.

5. The first Directress shall preside at all meetings [of the So-]ciety, and of the Board of Directors; and with the concurrence of any two of the other officers, shall have a right to appoint special meetings, as she may think necessary. In case of her death or absence, the second Directress shall have the same powers.

6. The Directresses, Clerk and Treasurer shall constitute a Board of Direction, whose duty it shall be to superintend the finances and property of the Society, and to use their best endeavors to increase the number of members, and to induce them to subscribe Liberally and Cheerfully to this, the Lord's free-will offering; to divide the [town into two, three or] more districts, and by a suitable per-[son chosen for the purpose] in each district to collect the monies [subscribed] and to pay the same to the Treasurer, for which she is to [give a receipt]. It shall also be the duty of each member of this ward and of the Society to solicit donations in money or books from her friends and acquaintances, who are not members of the Society and to deliver the same to the Treasurer, taking her receipt.

7. All meetings of the Board of Direction shall be called by the first Directress.

8. The Clerk shall keep a fair record of all the transactions of the Society, and of the Board of Direction.

9. The Treasurer shall give receipts for all monies paid her by any Collector,

& for all donations for which she shall also charge herself in her account with the Society; and on the order of the Board, signed by the presiding Directress, shall annually pay the same to the Treas-[urer of the Evangelical Missionary Society in the counties of Wor-]cester and Middlesex, whose receipt shall be her discharge.

10th. The accounts of the Treasurer shall be [examined by a person] appointed by the Society previously to every annual meeting and reported in writing.

11th. At every annual meeting this constitution shall be read, and also the transactions of the society, and of the Board of the preceding year.

12th. Industry and economy shall ever be considered as primary duties of the members of this Society, and as Heaven shall prosper us, so will we give; remembering always "that he who soweth sparingly shall reap sparingly; and that he who soweth bountifully shall reap bountifully."

The widow Abigail was living in Weston, May 1, 1814, with the last four children, and son Jacob, who was then called 17 years of age. She d. in Boston, Dec. 2, 1863, aged 96 years, 7 mos, 6 days. Nathan Hagar was bap. Jan. 6, 1744-5. He married Anna Bigelow, who was b. Friday, Aug. 23, 1751, Old Style. In the Hagar Bible, she is said to have been born Friday, Sept. 3. This is the correct date, New Style. His birthday is set down as Wednesday, Jan. 14, 1744-5. This is equivalent to Jan. 3, 1744-5, Old Style, which was undoubtedly the day of his birth, and which is in accord with his baptismal day, Jan. 6. In the Town Book, p. 81, he is said to have been born Jan. 26, 1744-5. This was not recorded until seven years later and is evidently an error. He was married Jan. 3, 1771, thus celebrating his birthday.

Probably the first marriage did not take place. There is no tradition of it in the family with which she lived. It was doubtless an error of return, not reported until seventeen years afterwards. Had she married Gay, she would not have retained the name of Ives. A John Gay of Natick, probably this one, died unmarried in 1862.

In a paper on file in the County Records (Ashby vs. Weston) under date of Aug. 22, 1820, we find a statement signed Solomon Jones, in which he declares himself in his 78th year; that he resided in Weston until 26 years of age; that he learned the trade of blacksmith and built a shop there; that he then went to Barry and remained until 1792; that he then removed to Keene for 5 months; then to Ashby and continued there until the latter part of 1799; then to Townsend till the latter part of 1801; then back to Ashby and remained ever since, and that he never had a family.

He was removed to Weston in 1820 and died there July 18, 1822.

Solomon Jones, Jr., was taxed in Weston for "faculty" 1764–1769. In 1767, he had £100 at interest. He probably used this in building his shop.

[It has required a great deal of study to get at the facts concerning these two Solomons. Bond is wrong.—ED.]

ERRORS IN THE ORIGINAL RECORDS,

Made at Various Times by Various Persons.

Page 1, line 31. For Thomas & Mary Gearfield, read Mercy. Printed from an incorrect copy of Watertown Records.

Page 15, line 17. Aron Adams, &c., was not entered in its proper place. Probably the clerk intended to put it at the foot of page 22 (where there is still space), instead of page 20.

Page 31, line 6. Jonas Parkhurst is said to have been born Aug. 20. On page 1, the date is given (properly) Aug. 15. He was baptized Aug. 17, 2 days old, p. 392.

Pages 73 and 74. The children of James & Abigail Jones are made a year too old. See baptisms, pp. 417, 421, 423, 426, 431, 434, 440. The youngest, Solomon [Jr.], was born Feb. 8, 1742-3.

Page 95, lines 40 and 43. The Minister's Record has William Park, John Hagar, jur.

Page 101, line 7. Samuel Hobbs lived and married. It was Susanna who died. See pp. 146 and 300.

Page 102, line 12. Jonas Peirce was b. Feb. 18, 1760, not 1759. See p. 469, 41.

Pages 114 and 115. These are not literatim copies of the Minister's Record. The same is true of pp. 146, 147, etc.

Page 114, line 7. For Esther Hastings, the Minister's Record has Esther Harrington. She was dau. of John Hastings, and widow of Adino Harrington.

Page 122, line 12. The wife of John Walker was Ruth, not Sarah. See pp. 488, 491, etc.

Page 161, line 36. Miss Olive Pepper should be Mrs. She was a widow. See p. 164.

Page 163, line 20. The name should be Hephzibah Fiske, not Smith. The minister made a wrong "return" See also pp. 160 and 326.

Page 164, line 5. Nath[l] Healy [of Dudley] and Abigail Cloyes [wid. of Elijah, mar. Feb. 11, 1788]. See Hist. of Framingham.

Page 164, line 30. } Miss Esther Dean. The Minister's Record has widow Esther Page 167, line 3. } Dean. She was widow of John Dean. See pp. 150, 164, 316.

Page 167, line 30. Miss Lucy Bemis. She was widow of Rufus. See Probate Records.

Page 178, lines 11 and 13. Josiah & Elizabeth Seaverns should be Joseph. Family Register, etc.

Page 179, line 1. 1781 was written for 1801. Those who have blundered in writing 1900 will perhaps sympathize with the bewildered clerk.

Page 179, line 29. James Bruce should be James Bunce. See p. 186, and Jackson's History of Newton.

Page 180, line 2. Miss Lucy Ward. The minister's original record of marriage has widow Lucy. See also page 187. She was widow of Dr. William Ward.

Page 181, line 14. Miss Priscella Allen. See p. 187, 23, where the word widow is supplied from the minister's original record. She was widow of Daniel Allen (d. 1797-8).

Page 181, line 21. Miss Abigail Stratton. The minister's record has widow Abigail. This was omitted in the returns, p. 187, 32. She was widow of John.

Page 186, line 33. The marriage of Abner Stone, Junr., Jan. 1st, 1801, etc., is on the minister's book, but he omitted to make the "return" to the town.

Page 186, line 36. John Perkins mar. Betsey Hastings, Jan. 13, 1801, not Jan. 1. The date was confused with the preceding omitted record in making the return.

Page 199, line 12. Intentions between Carlos Daggett & Miss Smith, Jan. 3rd, 1817. This was probably an error for Mary Child, whom he mar. Jan. 19, 1817.

Page 208, line 28. The mother of Amos P. Harrington was Mary, not Jerusha. The latter was his step-mother. See p. 521.

Page 262, line 25. John Mam of Natick and Tabitha Whitney of Weston, should have been John Lessum of Upton and Tabitha Whitney of Natick. This is an error for which there is apparently no reason. It was returned from Natick in 1857.

Page 262, line 34. Ebenezer Stetson of Weston, should have been Stedman. This also was returned from Natick in 1857.

Page 263, line 7. John Barrus of Weston, should have been Western [now Warren]. A wrong return from Bolton.

Page 312, line 14. Moses & Mary Peirce should be Mehetable. See p. 490.

Page 329, line 30. NOTE.— Mrs. Kendal's original record of deaths for 1821, 1822 and 1823, recently put into the editor's hands, shows some mistakes made by a copyist many years ago. Page 568, line 17. Abigail Hagar of Weston, d. on a visit to Boston, where her age is incorrectly given as 97-7-6. She was b. Apr. 26, 1767.
